EARLY MODERN PHILOSOPHY

Fall 2017, TH 8:30a-9:45a
Professor Stephen Puryear

God • Souls • Immortality
Mind • Knowledge • Free Will
Reason • Emotions • Morality

This class explores the foundations of modern thought with the help of three of the greatest and most influential philosophers of the period: René Descartes (1596-1650), Benedict Spinoza (1632-1677), and David Hume (1711-1776). Satisfies the GEP Humanities requirement.
