

Christianity

REL 317-001/002

MWF 9:35-10:25am (001) | MWF 10:40-11:30am (002)

Withers 105

How could a baby born in Bethlehem be the Son of God?
What can Christians know by reason and what must they accept by faith?

How do Christians balance faith and works and the claims of church and state?

Explore responses to these issues and more in this survey of the history of Christianity from its origins to the present

Dr. Mary Kathleen Cunningham
Department of Philosophy and Religious Studies mk_cunningham@ncsu.edu

This class satisfies Humanities and Global Knowledge GEP requirements