

Department of Philosophy and Religious Studies
North Carolina State University
Impact of Religion Lecture Series

Turbans, Beards, and Brown Skin: Learning to Navigate Bigotry in Modern America

In this talk, national phenomenon Simran Jeet Singh will combine insights from his life experiences and his work as a scholar of religion to introduce strategies for equity, inclusion, empathy, justice, and anti-racism. Combining real-world experience with academic rigor, Simran will deliver a vision of hope and renewal that shows how each of us can turn away from fear, uncertainty, and anger to move toward renewal and positive change.

<https://philrel.chass.ncsu.edu/religious-studies/activities-and-events/>

Simran Jeet Singh

Thursday, April 18, 3:00 p.m.
Caldwell Hall G107

Simran Jeet Singh, Ph.D., is the Executive Director of the Religion & Society Program at the Aspen Institute and the author of the national bestseller The Light We Give: How Sikh Wisdom Can Transform Your Life (Riverhead, Penguin Random House). Simran earned graduate degrees from Harvard University and Columbia University, and he writes regularly for major outlets, including Harvard Business Review, TIME Magazine, and Religion News Service. Simran also authored the award-winning children's book Fauja Singh Keeps Going: The True Story of the Oldest Person to Ever Run a Marathon (Kokila, Penguin Random House).